

45.00

The diagram shows a cylindrical component with a hemispherical top. A vertical dimension line on the left indicates a total height of 45.00 units, measured from the bottom flat surface to the top of the hemispherical cap. A horizontal dimension line at the bottom indicates a diameter of 28.00 units. A thick black horizontal bar is drawn across the middle of the cylinder, representing a groove or a specific section.

Ø28.00